Vibrant Village Program - Kinnaur (Kalpa)

Dates: 22 July 2024 to 31 July 2024

The Vibrant Village Program aimed to promote rural development and strengthen community bonds in Kinnaur, focusing on Kalpa. NCC cadets participated actively, engaging in various activities that enhanced both their leadership skills and community service experience.

Cadet Activities:

1. Community Service: Cadets assisted in local initiatives like tree planting, cleanliness drives, and water conservation awareness campaigns.
2. Cultural Exchange: Organized cultural programs to showcase local traditions, music, and dance, fostering a greater understanding of the regional heritage.
3. Workshops & Training: Participated in skill development workshops, including first-aid training and disaster preparedness sessions, conducted by local experts.
4. Sports & Physical Fitness: Engaged with village youth in sports activities, promoting physical fitness and teamwork.

The program fostered a spirit of unity and resilience among cadets and villagers, encouraging sustainable development and cultural preservation.

Annual Training Camp: 650 cadets took part

A 10 days annual training camp was organized by 6 hp (I) coy NCC Una at Pekhuwela, Una district. Around 650 cadets from SD/SW and JD/JW participated in this camp. Cadets were given important information about firing, drill, and army studies. During training the cadets focused on discipline and skill development, thereby enhancing their military capability.

The cadets were taught how to properly use different types of guns and weapons in firing. They were also explained in detail about shooting techniques and safety rules. In the drill session the cadets learned marching, salute and other military exercises along with discipline and coordination. Under Army studies, they were given information about the history of the Indian Army, its structure, and various ranks.

During the camp, cadets were also taught the importance of self-reliance, tolerance and teamwork. Emphasis was laid on enhancing their physical and mental capacity through various activities and competitions. The cadets shared their experiences and skills learned during this camp and described this opportunity as an important part of their lives.

On this occasion, the organizers of the camp said that the objective of such training camps is to motivate the youth to serve the country and prepare them for future challenges. The cadets also completed this camp with great enthusiasm and zeal and considered this training important in their future plans.
