A brief Annual Report of Student Mentoring

1. The first meeting of B.Com. 1st Year students was conducted on August 6, 2024. During this meeting, students were introduced to various clubs and societies and were encouraged to join them. They were also asked about any academic or campus-related issues they faced. All students expressed satisfaction.
2. The second meeting was held on October 9, 2024. In this session, students received guidance on effectively presenting solutions in their Mid-term and Annual Examinations. All concerns were addressed and resolved.
3. The third meeting took place on December 6, 2024. During this session, students inquired about the pattern of the house examination, the weightage of the Mid-Term Test (MTT) as a component of Continuous Comprehensive Assessment (CCA), and the weightage of other components such as assignments, class tests, and attendance. These aspects were explained thoroughly, and all their doubts were clarified.
4. The fourth meeting was conducted on February 24, 2025. In this meeting, students raised various queries regarding the pattern of the final examination. Additionally, they were provided with information about M.Com. and B.Ed. entrance examinations, along with other prospects in the commerce stream. All their queries were addressed.

Annual Report

(Academic Year 2024-25)

Mentor Teacher (Name): Dr. KRISHNA SHARMA Group No. _____
 Designation: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR Name of Department: CHEMISTRY

A brief Annual Report of Student Mentoring

1. A supportive and guidance-oriented interaction was held on 05.8.2024 for BSc 1st year students at the beginning of the academic session 2024-25 to help them navigate the transition to college life from school life. The meeting was aimed to ease the mentee's adjustment to a new academic and social environment by providing insights on academic expectations, campus resources, time management, and extracurricular opportunities.
2. Second meeting was conducted on 07.10.2024 to discuss the problems faced by the students at both the levels i.e. academics as well as personal. Students with short attendance especially in practical classes were asked to bring their parents.
3. Third meeting was conducted on 07.12.2024, prior to House exams to apprise the students about the syllabi for the same and their relevance w.r.t CCA.
4. During the fourth meeting which was conducted on 24.2.2025, the answer scripts of House Exams were shown to the students & their short comings were discussed. Participants of Annual Athletic meet, CSCA Cultural function were applauded. Previous year Question Papers were shared among the students to help them understand the pattern for the Annual Examination for an effective study plan.
